Parental Consent Form for the use of photography of children and young persons
Children and young persons are photographed in connection with B.N.M.A.A.:

- Administration (ID badges etc)
- Coaching and training aids
- Advertising, Publicity and Promotional works.

Parental photography forms an enduring part of each family's record of their child's progress, celebration of success and achievement, as well as being an established social practice.
We require on a per event basis your permission for photography to be taken.

'Photography' includes photographic prints and transparencies, video, film and digital imaging.

'Events' means any function, meeting, training session or competition of any nature, whether organised or supported or sponsored by B.N.M.A.A. or their Association members by any means whatsoever, wherever children or young people are the responsibility of B.N.M.A.A., there staff or members or their Associations staff or members.
